The Bantu Empires – We Survived Western Quislings in Black Face

by Yolande Grant

A protracted declaration of one-sided war was discharged on my family. We remained unaware for decades who the enemies were, due to their well-known cowardly methods of hiding behind mindless, miseducated slaves. Who execute dirty, dastardly deeds on behalf of whom they adore. It became clear over decades there was a concerted effort to destroy us, but nearly impossible to figure out who the culprits were and why. It took over 20 years after decades of cumulative attacks and trauma to draw them out. Only to have them pivot toward an attempt at scandal making to cover up their contemptible felonies when finally unmasked. A century old procession of the vilest liars and obfuscators, entrapped one of the most powerful bloodlines from the continent, birthed in the west. But finally revealed themselves when elevated arrogance could no longer contain their disdain. As only 11 plus slaves would. The most egregious and grievous of intrusions. Culminated in the discovery that they were hiding our identities from us out of envy and malice, laced with terrible thuggery. starting in my teenage to senior years. Political hypocrites who showed not the least bit of social concern for human Afrikans. Such as those present on the island, living around the Caribbean region and wider diaspora. The ancient people naturally gifted at making the island a success muted and segregated for targeting. Given our millennia-old legacies. We possess deep ancestral knowledge easily utilized for empire building and high-level societal development. Thrown up as a wondrous gift by Afrika. Had the under-educated worldstage prancers, mis-leaders with underdeveloped minds been blessed with the slightest requisite brain power, inclination, or lineal connection to recognize the time, waves of negative energy and opportunities they expended and wasted on small-time con artist plots and plans. And would certainly not now be seen as frightening pariahs, capable of just about anything for self-gain. Unfortunately, the hateful and brutish, could envision no further than the next scam. Hence, their recent unenviable public achievements, as a world-class revolving door of birthed embarrassments. After decades of generational grooming for a “mission Barbados” foray into hostage holding. But will effectively and completely disappear, just as it was hidden from Afrikan descents for 100 years. Finally, some comeuppance, as their well-deserved exposure has become imminent. Such notorious types who resemble Afrikans in skin texture only, but nothing else. Since their hereditary connections to the continent became permanently severed and never reattached, sometime during their centuries on the island. The repulsive will learn there is a price to pay for craving big league status as political and societal traitors. When in debased minds, nothing is too low or immoral to unleash on Afrikans. All part of a multi-layered centennial-old long con to allegedly murder descendants to steal our Afrikan birthrights, as alleged defrauders. In reviewing activities, decrepit, long-term delusions seemingly took centre stage, as sufferers of limited intelligence and even less commonsense, grabbed and guarded the chance to hold bloodlines of ancient Empires as social captives; so, they can all feed off our existence indefinitely from whatever derives. Despite Afrikan Presidents in the last five years requesting a return to ancestral lands. There was not the slightest attempt, besides the usual sleight of hand questionable actions. And recently revealed alleged trading of information on important bloodlines to the oldest of enemies.

Commencing a horrifyingly nauseous precedent for monetary returns, the giddyheaded international recognition, and attention. Despite many whirlwind jaunts to the continent in the last 5 years. With strenuous pleadings issuing from many people, misleaders not once saw it necessary, to introduce Afrikan educational studies, languages, cultures, and traditions from primary school level upward. Nothing was offered or thought about, just as it was all banned from the island centuries ago, and still viewed as unwanted by those who abhor everything Afrikan, except for a sickening new interest in Afrika's wealth and opportunities for racketeering. All such requests to school the population in their rightful heritage were ignored. Hence the descended are no closer to finding out who they are, which communal tribe on the continent they belong to, or anything that could bring closure from the centuries of negative experience. A gang of prideful colonial cadavers who get nothing right but see only negatives to dish out to melanated bloodlines, as notorious failures. Accurately described with finesse by Pachamama as the chief architects of the island's stagnation and failure to progress or properly develop:

"That the country could have descended into this morass of Lilliputians and as Barrow said "unfinished products" from top to bottom is only properly paired by an ignorant population untethered from reality and unwilling or lacking the courage to sweep this inferior breed asunder. From top to bottom!"

Who are all undoubtedly joined at the hip in a pact of economic marriage, aka allegedly pilfering from taxpayers and pensioners annually, with their community sidekicks of the minority class. And no ability to think along the lines of intellectual precision or honesty. Just like the weakest minds who follow, support, promote and vote into the parliament for insignificant small power such rudderless and anchorless misfits. Who will never have full control, even with current political ranking. A much, much lesser in stature Tribe of Thieves with delusions of imperialist grandeur: somehow convinced themselves, they can permanently mislead, suppress, pauperize, and terrorize those they beg for votes but look down on Afrikan bloodlines strongly connected to Empire builders. While feeding off us, and our families. The Bantu will never become the slaves of lower status colonial blacks. Well known beggars, borrowers and dependents, entwined with a renowned mixture of parasitic minorities, a very small and hateful grouping, mostly from the indentured servant class descended from deportees of the UK from the 1600s Cromwell narrative: and brown face slave masters from other regions. An unwelcome insult, disrespect, and step-down. There is certainty many Afrikan descents have heard about the "Crown Jewels of Afrika." Most people would naturally think the reference was of gold, diamonds, platinum, and gravitate toward that thought by default. But no. We are the Afrikan human "crown jewels of Afrika." Sometime within the last hundred years, those from the negro category, craving elitism, aspired to become politicians and entered parliaments, then somehow gained access to our real identities. We have since learnt that they secretly sat in chairs as employees of western Empire for nearly three decades. But had no intention of revealing our heritage background to whom it rightfully belongs. The pretend leaders maliciously shared this very private and confidential information between themselves only, generationally. Real leaders would ensure we had complete possession of what is ours, traitors never did. They knew of our bloodline family links to western groups, including Empires. But made a conscious effort and decision to misuse and abuse that knowledge to the furthest extent in their determination to create esfet for Afrikans. Instead of carefully informing us of these very sensitive issues that are usually handled with the greatest of care. And social services provided for those who have challenges adjusting to previously hidden information. In cases like these, help is desperately needed to cushion any psychological fallout. While working with us to strive for better. As genuine, competent leaders who practice care, ethics, integrity, morals, and scruples would.

But not this band of gangsters who viewed their treasure trove of our familial story as a rare contingency and self-enrichment career goal: to not only sell the information to the highest bidder. But also punish us using a climate of terror. Then refused us our right to accumulate generational wealth. The way the neglectful went about stealthily hiding that crucial cache. Only the few knew about certain classical Afrikan DNAs, and historical European Empires, such as my families' that also encompasses numerous ancient Bantu Empire building countries and domiciled within the Caribbean population for hundreds of years. While we never knew and were not told. These actions showcased a lack of scruples and a heavy malodor of betrayal, without fear of reprisals, coming from pretenders calling themselves politicians of the Caricom region. Such an announcement would immediately peak the interests of enslaver countries. Information is power, currency and leverage. Especially for those who see our existence and any potential return to our continent as a direct threat. Since so many groups invaded and many still occupy our ancient ancestral lands that are not theirs; the opportunity to exploit still exists. The intent was recognized for what it really is: a very dangerous operation the local group of regressive embarked upon and set into motion. However, the syndicate of damaged goods own none of the above qualities of real leadership. And instead, weaponized their find against us in the form of exploitation, oppression, pauperization, suppression, and entrapment, consistently and generationally. All for personal gain. There has always been concern since the 1970s surrounding a spate of inexplicable alleged extra-judicial killings of young Afrikan descended men and boys, attributed to one or the other justification. Accompanied by unsolved murders of young women. Although seemingly suspicious, never traced to any real miscreants hiding in the background. While their slave-like followers and supporters carry out these dehumanizing practices. An ugly scenario by any standards, but easily orchestrated by the uncaring whose Afrikan ancestors suffered the same fate as ours did, but never viewed as essential to educate, or share with us, what is rightfully ours, and not theirs to know or keep. They kept it to themselves for the double-sided heinousness of formation self-aggrandizement, pretend nobility and wealth accumulation purposes. It was our right to know, and withheld out of malicious, conniving criminal greed and wickedness. They know and we did not, the power in our bloodlines due to what they illegally held against us in their arsenal of horror. But see us only as a way and means to enrich themselves and upkeep the impostor and interloper status rightly ascribed to them. A group of non-Africans, who obviously hold the deluded worldview they own an island of Afrikan descended Slaves, as property, and can do whatever they feel with our private, personal, and highly confidential information, they criminally, illicitly obtained and disseminated without our permissions. That is the degraded mindset of descendants of Afrikan Slaves, decked out in crude, outdated titles. After numerous decades-long attempts on my life, coupled with recent events, the alleged extra-judicial and other killings started making sense. And prompted me to seek out a Matriclan test on the Matriarchal Haplo Group female line. Where results revealed a direct descent of the ancient warrior Bantu Nation, as a previous ancestry test had also confirmed. A well populated group of countries, many thousands of years in existence, too many to count. Our venerable ancestors expanded outward, opened corridors, built Empires, and developed areas all along our continent, plains and savannahs, across Central Afrika, Southeast Afrika, and South Afrika millennia ago. Apparently, I was not expected to survive all those attempts on my life, and had I not, my children and grandchildren, on and off the island, were sure to become targets into the future; since their knowledge about ancestral warrior bloodlines directly linked to the ante-diluvian, and western Empires, would become forever lost in the mix of not knowing. While their lives remain at risk each generation. Had I not found out. This ugliness reveals the immense danger to all Afrikans near and far from the mindsets of such vipers on small islands, nesting in parliaments. The Afrikan population in Barbados and across the region ought to confront the Judases they installed and pay. Demand immediate access to and release of their private and confidential familial information. Both about the extended family members in the West and those on the Continent of Afrika. Private data kept hidden for their own, but not our security. Force them to give up what is rightfully yours. It is not theirs and you are not their Slaves. They are merely vote beggars who managed to convince themselves over the last four life cycles, that they, not us, are entitled to our birthright. And take liberties to perpetrate such. They must now be dispelled of that notion. In my case, I publicly and very vocally allowed those with the craving to illegitimately acquire birthrights they do not own to know. Should they mention my name or that of my family. Try to connect to and make any arrangements, or present forged instruments, such as Wills and Title Deeds. That already made them very famous in the West for the past century. Given the trail of alleged victims I know of personally. Should they make any false claims and misrepresentations to the Bantu people on the continent, in relation to inheritance. None of which is beneath them. The Kingdoms and Presidents have already received communication that such intruders should face immediate arrest as dangerous impersonators and predators. There is supported, irrefutable evidence indicating such tacky and distasteful behavior over the last hundred years. The elderly, their beneficiaries, young, middle-aged, the deceased, dying, unborn, just born and in this particular case. Those who will arrive in the future, were for the last four generations allegedly already robbed. Using false claims, fabricated Wills, Probate documents, Title Deeds and other ways as a series and frightening sequence. That allegedly unceremoniously relieved the unaware and innocent of huge estates, bank accounts, land, became naturally pauperized, and suppressed with each incoming birth due to the alleged criminal practice.

While those present are allegedly threatened with harm and arrest if they complain, turn up on the island, or initiate proceeds to have estates returned. By those who have no love for Afrikans, or anyone they view as a mark and viable prey. Most lawyers in Barbados would know what transpired. The extended laundry list of alleged crimes committed. As many were recently convicted and imprisoned for alleged theft. But those who have not yet been caught, obviously carry the same selfish ideology of not caring once their pockets and bank accounts are full. This is the time they should use all legal methods at their disposal to end this injustice and activity directed at Afrikan descents, others, and free the population and themselves from the stranglehold of mindless evil and entrapment emanating from slave master parliaments by fixated wannabes.

The Bantu Empires – We Survived Western Quislings in Black Face

by Yolande Grant

This highly disturbing state of affairs was distilled to influential people on the continent of Afrika. Who assured and advised it must be shared far and wide about the platoon of degenerates in the Caribbean region. NONAFRIKANS who look just like us, but are not of us, in any way. But have the audacity: after wickedly sequestering us from ancestral lands and our dominant heritage. Through extreme physical violence, brainwash, indoctrination, poverty, lies, alleged ongoing thefts, and brute force. To wretchedly speak in public on a world stage platform about deep mining in the same breath as admiration for France. How dare these monsters and beasts attempt to seize another opportunity to usurp our continent in continuation of crimes against Afrika and Afrikans, as traitors.

I suggest we do, likewise, as recommended by an Elder from one Kingdom. And share this with our brothers and sisters in Barbados, across the region and the extended diaspora. Since the Pringle-Muttley Gang in their arrogance, lack of remorse and total disrespect for Afrika and Afrikans believe themselves invincible and untouchable. We are extremely fortunate. We have to show gratitude and eternal appreciation. That our ancestors have been guiding and protecting us from the Apep of the Duat. Therefore: denying our sworn enemies every success.

We are our Ancestors.

We are the RULERS of our REALM.

We are Bantu. This is WAR.

A Spectacular 21st Century Economic Collapse of The First Slave Society in The Caribbean During an Exodus to Our African Ancestral Land, while Battling Quislings

by Yolande Grant

Chapter 1

Knowing Not, That We Know Not

The State of the African Diaspora led by Dr. Tin was inaugurated in Abidjan in 2018, in a program developed by the African Union since 2003. And concluded in the formation of an African Diaspora government. The Maroon territories in Jamaica were “designated” as representatives of Africa’s Sixth Region. To date, there is no movement toward a unification that is visible or viable within the context presented. Another go nowhere affair incompetently handled. Undeniable human rights must be stipulated and not ignored or prohibited, while information for survival should be disseminated; instead of hidden for nefarious self-serving reasons. Not surprisingly, since Barbados’ failure to secure $50 billion dollars from the UK and EU in reparations money that was distinctly not earmarked for the descendants of the enslaved. With such disrespect taking on all the appearances of another alleged scam. Disappointment drove the billion-dollar seekers to latch on to African Presidents. With obvious hopes of fulfilling dishonorable intentions. Small governments never see fit to apply safeguards around the people and islands, despite many decades of corporality. It is easy to imagine there was no great challenge or fear of discovery while under cloaked cover of an independence ceremony. With complete freedom to reintroduce repetitious usage of suppression. And new era human rights violations against a people frequently and maliciously observed in various forms of vulnerability over many centuries. A criminally captured people, with no security shield, unable to detect the constant surveillance of themselves. And without the expertise to fight back against those perpetrators and merchants of distortion, tyranny, perversions, thefts, death, and ruination. Enforcers who have over 400 years of combined experience amid undisturbed, well-honed routines. With help from those who resemble Africans: and proclaim themselves nobility but lack humanity as fellow leaders of Empires. To engage in and experiment on those, they, to this day, in their mixed-up levels of superiority complex. Still believe are their personal human property. And thought of in licentious minds as nonhuman. As sanctioned ages ago under cruel policies created by the European zone. And, as some say, the in-force Papal Bull of 1455, designed to enslave Africans around the globe and pre-planned to last into perpetuity. The well-documented (14) and wide array of alleged stratospheric crimes committed with intrepid zeal against the socially and mentally stagnated. Without consent sought, and outside any recognized or thoughtful perceptions are thoroughly analyzed, stripped down, and revisited interminably, but never forgotten. A contained group who fought never-ending battles for freedom. And thought they had finally made progress. Right up until the Windrush scandal exposed that as a 150-year-old delusional falsification, in June 2018. The disquieting chain of events surrounding Windrush victims was challenging to succeed. And near impossible to occur with mentally tenacious, intelligent Black leaders at the helm, post-independence, but that did not happen. Many are practicing lawyers who present as pretentious and uncaring over time, who are never bothered. That is how they are perceived.

It is however, adversarial to project such an image to those who voted, expected and deserve much better. Leaders whose spineless, uninspiring actions are unacceptable. Glows negatively, and if productive with positive results. And not so easily distracted by the glitter of material things, coveting a status they were not born into but still climbing to achieve. While subjectively weak, vain, and rapacious. Proven as ineffective in protecting the people who voted them in to defend and serve, the effort would gain applause. But instead, they maintained a system of bondage against the people whose existence they need so they can pretend. On behalf of themselves and descendants of our ancestor's miserable existence. With advertised pride, and remain too stubborn and self-absorbed in the 21st century to see the silliness and desperation they display. We can understand and appreciate, how archetype bullies continued measures of pushing brute force tactics against newly installed island management. Just before and shortly after independence celebrations in the 50s, 60s, and 1970s. Episodes in battered lives caused the weapon of historical inhumanity to thrive in parliaments in that era. Easily trickling down into vulnerable societies during a brutal introduction of indoctrination. An atmosphere that served its purpose in creating generational apprehension among controlled leaders toward hard line overseas officialdom. It is well understood that they remained under inflexible direction. The tyrannical presence is well attested, given the (15) history of assassinations determinedly directed at African leaders. Who refused to comply with raiding the continent's assets to drive nations of populations into poverty to benefit world players. Much of it previously unknown until recently. And for wanting to take care of their African people as is their sole responsibility, and bound duty as servants. Understandably, making those in rulership positions pre-independence wary and apprehensive about doing the right things to avoid retaliation, but after those decades of unease ended, and when the 1990s finally arrived, more leeway became available. So there is no logical explanation for sustaining slave societies at the peoples' expense and behest of local minority criminals from then until today. This time arbitrarily, with disrespect once again shown to our ancestral identity by paid leaders. As archival substantiation points out, invaders and squatters had no problem in the 1400s believing they had a designated right to decree the enduring enslavement of Africa's people. No doubt descendants still hold on to that misconception today. When galvanized and energized by the previous primitive enactment. In which a Pope in that age dared to authorize Spain and Portugal to colonize the Americas and its Native peoples as commodity. And assert the rights of Europe to dominate our earth without authorization from successive generations of the indigenous Africans affected. The unaware traumatized populations violently forced into servitude and converted with false canons while justifying that enslavement by Papal Bull through fraudulent religions and questionable bibles remained cornered. One such document was brazenly titled "The Negro Slave Bible" reproduced and distributed to the British West Indies and literally introduced as a savior. There is no doubt that the continent was not left out of the period of mind control. Many can see the design for what it is and as rolled out in the last century and a half. Particularly in the decades after emancipation when the scheme was entirely re-developed and refashioned into the authors' likeness, which is taken very seriously. The obtuse self-proclaimed "political class" its regulated agents, bloated (16) with false pride and fake titles, gliding along every five years into respective parliaments with inflated chests and empty heads, have not earned their keep. While incapable of copying any elements of the positive that former triangle traders have to offer but seem pioneered to replicate and implement all the negatives the corroded system delivers.

The facilitators of barbaric policies joyfully execute racist, despotic schemes against Caribbean survivors. Without question or hesitation. Politicians who always lacked a social conscience, or original thought for over 50 years. Marinate themselves in a well-heeled apparatus devised chiefly for them through a well-formulated design. Ensuring that feeble minds remain pliable for easy handling, brainwash and the ever-present, perpetual mental enslavement. Although never figuring out that they too are in the same boat as the hundreds of millions who did not survive such a weak affliction. As the more illuminated have opined for years. The regular changing of politicians need to happen before they get too comfortable, dig in and extend roots. Making it difficult to rid countries of them and their ever-increasing backward gazing approach to good governance. The right to recall should be mandatory. Had leaders by some miracle managed to figure out the above on their own. It explains why they are still so iniquitous and hold the opinion that their job description is made up entirely of acquiring riches and banners. The grand master plan from the 1940s lasting at least 80 years, was economic passivity, servitude, and inculcation. All successfully generates more depressed areas of people incapable of fighting their circumstances. With an escalation of dysfunction and unheard of terrible levels of destitution. Therefore, whoever erroneously wants to believe there is not a much grander, more elaborate and treacherous machination to re-design this dying strategy. Into another highly adaptable, even less detectable, anti-melanin attacks and transgressions. And that Africa and her descendants are not once again the primary targets, is delusional. While the inheritors of ancestral crimes against humanity and their agents on small islands disregard international human rights for descendants of the majority still (17). All very prophetic, eerily so, until recently revealed in 2023. That small island politicians play a much larger voluntary role in the people's betrayal than previously known. While reinforcing the trapping of descents under social and fiscal embargo, in the process. Those islands flying under the symbol of republic status since the 1970s, or before, also remain subordinate to commonwealth guidance. The total abolition from all hemispheres and out of the lives of Africa's most precious human jewels everywhere: is the only solution to end this controlling contraption. Once the melanated did not create prototype systems of bureaucracy that work against them, there is no reason to keep the delegated western plague in play. Though initially hidden. The iniquities are in plain sight. With ancestral artifacts, treasures, and the dismembered bodies and heads of Queens and Kings stolen from the continent still in the wrong possession. With some European countries making feeble attempts to return some, but not all treasures to ancestral holdings. Which is opening another can of worries because of leadership issues. Related to some of the continent management accused by others of not being blessed with intellectual savvy. Leaders and supporters of their people's destruction, once filled with vanity, arrogance and life-long narcissistic qualities will never see their weaknesses. But that was the well-thought-out plan. Give those who present themselves for people delegation and eagerly rush to the front a sense of false ownership. While pushing genuinely brilliant people out of the way; make absolutely sure they carry abnormally emasculated states of mind, and covet impressive decorations. When given lots of latitude, this guarantees they become engorged with self-importance, are then of no use to their people, and it works perfectly. Then, once elevated to societal prominence, immediately believe themselves superior to the voters they tricked with lies, whom they then hide from for the next five years. Thus, finally blinded by that optical illusion, will never see the initiated dangers headed toward those who lifted them and since they were never blessed with creative skills, most will not care. These types of politicians do more harm than good and are undeserving of leadership roles. Their only claim to fame is as the alleged corrupt. Directors of doom and misfortune, a label that makes them seemingly proud. When reckless administrations become cognitively challenged and incapacitated to the point of nonaction. Hiding the heritage of Afrikan descents for self-promotion purposes. With the intent to later enrich themselves. All show and no substance. Keeping the island nonfunctioning to prove they are the dimmest political bulbs. The population, the politician's employers, quickly devolve into anyone's favorite quarry. Robert Nesta Marley of Jamaica, our Caribbean prophet and visionary, did his part through music to open eyes (18) to the realities confronting everyone. And prepared us for the possibilities that lay ahead when the time comes to rise and take our rightful place in new beginnings. Freeing ourselves from invasions of the mind. Ulterior motives and conceited self-interests that only serves to disable and delay the ascent of Africans far and wide.

The echoes of Le Code Noir of 1661-1668, are still in effect. The stench left behind when slave masters took a less active and direct participation in administering to the island. The horror of application reconvened under black politicians and reshaped itself across all islands, as far as it could taint. Consisted of a confined and restrictive slave-holding society kept firmly in place by orchestration. And has magnified sufficiently in a way that ensures the facade can no longer hold, or remain in the dark. The older version of extreme evil enacted as an "Act for the Governing of Negroes," giving beasts the legal right and authority to chastise, whip, brand, lacerate, cripple, murder or set fire to Africans. Eventually took on a brand-new meaning, face, and redefined itself as slave economies of subjugation. With fraudulent black leaders at the helm, as gofers, minions and puppets. Who eventually decided that they are finally in charge. And now taking it upon themselves to spread their brand of dangerous poison across the archipelago, and our earth. A repetition with a distinct and more twisted output of anti-black atrocities aimed at Afrikan descents, in silence, but no less terrifying and damaging.

Wonderful Ethiopians of the Ancient Kushite Empire: Chapter V. Prehistoric Egypt, The Land of Wonders

The native name of Egypt was Khem, the black land. The name came not so much from the color of the soil as the hue of the inhabitants. Egypt was called the "Gift of the Nile," because Lower Egypt was formed out of soil brought down by the mighty river. Without the Nile, Egypt would be but a desert. The ancient peoples seemed to know more about the sources of the Nile than later nations. In our age, Livingston explored the branches of the White and Blue Nile far into the highlands of the equator. The land through the ages has been raised by the deposits left by each annual overflow. Failure of the river to rise means drought and famine. At the time of overflow Egypt is a vast sea with her cities on the tops, of continuous natural mounds. Numerous canals traverse the country connecting the natural channels. Egypt was inhabited in ancient days by two races or two distinct divisions of one race. Ancient records all testify that the ruling class in those times was the Ethiopian. They founded the powerful priest caste. "This priesthood included the judges, physicians, astrologers, architects--in a word they united within themselves all the highest culture and the most distinguished offices of the land." (Biblical Literature.) p. 67 Calumet testifies, that from ancient accounts and from all recent research, culture and civilization spread into Egypt from the south and especially from Meroe. Egypt, ruled at first by several contemporary kings, was finally united into one great kingdom. A priesthood seemed to have governed the land. The head of the state was a priest. The sacred books of the Hindu speak of an "Old Race," that came down from Upper Egypt and peopled the delta. They mentioned the Mountains of the Moon and the Nile flowing through Barabra. Herodotus says in his Second Book, "They say that in the time of Menes all Egypt except the district of Thebes was a morass, and that no part of the land now existing below Lake Myris was then above water. To this place from the sea is seven days passage up the river." Diodorus Siculus says in Book Three, "The Ethiopians say that the Egyptians are a colony drawn out of them by Osiris; and that Egypt was formerly no part of the continent; but a sea at the beginning of the world, and that it was afterward made land by the river Nile." This testimony is corroborated by geology Rennel, after scientific investigation says, "The configuration and composition of the lowlands of Egypt leave no room to doubt that the sea once washed the base of the rocks on which the pyramids of Memphis stand; the present base of which is, reached by the inundations of the Nile at an elevation of seventy or eighty feet above the Mediterranean." How remote, must be the period when Egypt was not the gift of the Nile. Renan p. 68 declares that Egypt had no infancy because, its first colonists had been civilized in Ethiopia. Sayce thinks Egypt did not begin with Menes, that when Abraham went down in Egypt 4000 years ago, the origin and meaning of the Sphinx was lost in mystery. The Sphinx and the pyramids were symbols of some form of religion of the Old Race. Baldwin quotes from Diodorus Siculus, "The laws, customs, religious observances and letters of the ancient Egyptians closely resembled the Ethiopians, the colony still observing the customs of their ancestors." Egyptians in later days affirmed, that they and their civilization came from the black tribes of Punt. Some scholars seek to derive Egyptian civilization from some Oriental source. There is evidence that the culture of Egypt was not developed in Egypt from their traditions and their earliest remains. It did not come from the north or east but must have been imported from the south for as Budge affirms, Egyptians had all the characteristics of an African race Sergi shows that the discoveries of Flinders Petrie and De Morgan prove that prehistoric Egypt was not influenced by any Oriental civilization.

The primitive people of Egypt, as revealed by archaeology, dressed in skins, and used rude stone implements of the stone-age men. They lived in mud and reed huts and hunted wild animals. We do not. And any such rude beginnings for the race of the Soudan. From these people of Punt, came Kushite colonists bearing to the children of Mizraim p. 69 knowledge of copper, bronze, cereals, oxen, sheep, goats, and brickmaking. The historic Egyptian rose probably from the union of the aborigines and the invaders. Sayce says that the ancient Egyptians had the elongated type of skull. With the intermixture of later times the heads of the Egyptians have widened. The race of today has returned to the aboriginal mud hut on the bank of the Nile. In the days of Egyptian supremacy, the cranial formation was Ethiopian. James Henry Breasted, world famous archaeologist, discovered in Egypt the studio of an Egyptian sculptor of 1400 B. C. It was called the house of the chief sculptor Thutmos. All the portraits were remarkable in that they were unmistakably African. The early population of Thebes was Nubian. The reign of Menes was no nearer our time than 4000 B. C. One of the temple records calls him a Theban. Thebes was settled from Meroe. Menes had been a priest of Upper Egypt, the older of the two countries. He made a change in the channel of the Nile. Many ages of civilization had preceded him. Bunsen believed that the time preceding Menes was greater than since. Lepsius says, "Under the Fourth Dynasty, six thousand years ago, the nation had approached the highest development at which we find her, of which the ruins still bear witness. The admirable system of monumental writings showed its highest perfection in the oldest ruins. This certainly indicated a long previous development." This was the age when Egypt was under domination p. 70 of the Ethiopians. The farther back we go the more perfect the art and the purer the ideals. The ancient temples were almost covered with inscriptions. So universal was education that even workmen wrote upon the stones. Chronology as we have computed it, makes no allowance for the many ages through which Egypt must have passed to have reached the high stage of culture which she had obtained at the dawn of recorded history. The chronology of Berossos, Mantheo, and the Hindu sages, include ages of which other races possess no history and seem incomprehensible to us. These were Kushite races, the first men, and bring over a record of ages preceding the Deluge. Their chronology is backed by the findings of science, which have shown that the earth is older than the puny period allowed by Usher's Chronology. The Bible says that a thousand years with our God is as a day. Examination of prehistoric culture, reveals but the rich languages, complex systems of religion, and astounding architectural achievements, which appear when the curtain of history was lifted, are proof that the earth is older than we perceive. The priests of Sais said to Solon, "You Greeks are novices in all the knowledge of antiquity. You are ignorant of what passed here or among yourselves in the days of old. The history of eight thousand years is deposited in our sacred books, but we can ascend to much higher antiquity and tell you what our fathers have done for nine thousand years. I mean their institutions, their p. 71 laws, and their brilliant accomplishments." Baldwin points out that neither Solon nor Plato thought this improbable. The Greeks could tell nothing of their progenitors and but little of the Pelasgian race that preceded them in Hellenic lands. "There can be no doubt," says Baldwin, "that the Egyptians preserved old records of the early period of their history extending beyond Menes." This knowledge was lost to our times by the destruction of the Alexandrian library and the fanatical zeal which destroyed all pagan manuscripts. Again, the significant questions arise, why were the Greeks so ignorant as to their ancestors, and why did Egypt hold the knowledge of earlier Hellenic life? It must have been that the historic Greeks were but emigrants into Hellenic lands; that in prehistoric ages had been filled with the rich culture of another race Akin to the Egyptians.

Wonderful Ethiopians of the Ancient Kushite Empire: Chapter V. Prehistoric Kemet (Egypt), The Land of Wonders

Drusilla Dunjee Houston

That the deluge did not reach this portion of the human race, may be the reason why Ethiopia was able to introduce civilization to the other races. All of the races of the earth have their traditions of a universal deluge but the African. They may have brought over to us the knowledge of the arts and wisdom of the ante-diluvian world. Reclus also declares, "All the marvels of Egypt were not tire, work of the Retu. Neither Usher's chronology nor the little country Phoenicia can suffice to explain that mighty and widespread influence of the Kushite race in human affairs, whose traces are visible from Farther India to Norway."
